

Fourth Annual Conference

Engaging Secondary School Students and Their Communities

Forum Breakout Session

Getting A Jump on College

Facilitator:

Elena Saenz, Director of Academic Initiatives, Montgomery College, Rockville Campus

Presenters:

Janet Johnson, High School Programs Director, Montgomery College, Rockville, Maryland

Jeff Baker, Academy Coordinator, Seneca Valley High School, Montgomery County Public Schools

Montgomery College partners with Montgomery County Public Schools to help students prepare for college and create a smooth transition to postsecondary education. This session will discuss the obstacles and options available for students through the MC/MCPS Partnership. The program provides assessment for college readiness, identifies students needing remediation that can be offered through the high schools and offers college classes to those who are ready.
