

Fourth Annual Conference

Engaging Secondary School Students and Their Communities

Forum Breakout Session

Inspiring Students to Teach: Building Pathways to Foster Dedicated Educators

Facilitator:

Regina Breiterman, *Acting Coordinator, Education, Training and Child Studies,
Division of Career and Technology Education, Montgomery County Public Schools*

Presenters:

Jane Lai Woodburn, Director of Recruitment and Staffing, Montgomery County Public Schools

Pamela Morgan, Teacher Academy of Maryland, Towson University, Maryland

Debra Poese, Montgomery College, Rockville, Maryland

Joe Sangillo, Academy of Leadership and Education Lead Teacher, Gaithersburg High School, Montgomery County Public Schools

Juliet Good, Coordinator, Rocket Corp Program, Richard Montgomery High School, Montgomery County Schools

As the sixteenth largest school district in the nation and the largest employer in Montgomery County, Montgomery County Public Schools faces an ongoing challenge to attract and keep talented and dedicated teachers. This panel will provide strategies for inspiring students to become dedicated teachers including a unique secondary-postsecondary pathway program and a successful model for peer mentoring and tutoring.