

Your Rights Regarding Student Records and Directory Information

What Schools can do:	What Parents and Students over 18 can do:
Directory Information
Schools provide “directory information” for public listings such as honor roll, awards, and other notices in the newspaper or on the MCPS Web. A student’s name, address and telephone number may also be released to Parent Teacher Associations (PTA). Unless you tell them not to, schools can release this information without your prior consent. What is Directory Information? Directory information includes the following items: Student’s name, address, and telephone number; date and place of birth; major field of study; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; degrees and awards received (including honor roll); most recent school attended; dates of attendance; photograph or other likeness; the weight and height of members of athletic teams; and, other similar information.	If you do not want your school to release your “directory information,” complete the form below and return it to your school by September 12, 2008. This form must be completed every school year. Your school will assume you agree to the release of directory information, unless this form is returned by Friday, September 12, 2008. If you need to change your decision at a later date just contact your school directly. If you enroll after September 12, 2008, you can complete this form at the time of enrollment.
Student Educational Records
Schools must provide you the opportunity to inspect student educational records within 45 days of receipt of such request. They must also provide you an opportunity to ask for amendments or for a hearing to challenge the content of the record if you believe it contains information that is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student’s rights to privacy. (grades are not subject to challenge). If requested, schools may disclose educational records without consent to another school in which a student seeks to enroll.	You may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education if you believe your rights have been violated and efforts to resolve the situation with MCPS have not proven satisfactory. Family Policy and Compliance Office U.S. Department of Education 400 Maryland Avenue, SW Washington, D.C. 20202-4605 202-260-3887.
