

Graphic Organizer: Nonfiction

Briefly summarize the overall main ideas and important details found in this text.

What new terms or concepts from the text must the reader learn in order to understand the overall main idea?

Relate the information in this text to knowledge you have from other sources.

Describe the information presented in this text that was new to you.

Describe additional information the author could have included that would have made the topic more understandable to the reader.

