

The Judy Center Early Learning Hub

at Summit Hall Elementary School

Family Engagement

Judy Center families are invited to Literacy Night at Summit Hall Elementary on Thursday, October 26th at 6:30pm. Dinner will be provided before joining other families for a demonstration read aloud. Wear your pajamas!

PreK Registration will continue throughout the school year. Families are invited to speak with Head Start Family Service Worker Teresa DelGadillo, about registration questions or contact the PreK Team at Rockinghorse Road.

Professional Development

Partners and educators supporting the Judy Center at Summit Hall are invited to share their professional development needs and desires via survey. This information will be used to identify and provide professional development during the 2023-24 School Year. Please access the survey here:

Fall Fun Begins!

The Judy Center is happy to share that we have many programs and activities available to new and returning families this year.

The PreK classes at Summit Hall Elementary will travel to Butler's Orchard on Wednesday, October 11th to pick pumpkins, visit the farm animals and enjoy a hayride before settling down to a picnic lunch.

Parent Learning Opportunities

Parents of PreK and Head Start students are invited to join Teresa DelGadillo, the Head Start Family Service Worker, for the kick off PreK Parent Meeting on Friday, October 6th from 9:30-11:00 at the Judy Center.

In addition to special information about PreK Support services, development and learning, each family will receive learning materials and books to take home.

The next PreK/Head Start meeting will be on October 26th, via Zoom. All participants will be entered into a raffle to win a Bedtime In a Box for their PreK student as well as other prizes.

Goodbyes

With a sad heart we share that some of our beloved team members, Katherine Martinez, Stefany Amaya & Monica DeLeon, have moved on to other positions within MCPS. The impact you made on the families at our Judy Center will never be forgotten. Best of Luck!
